The President's Message

Dear Members:

It was with great pleasure that I was privileged to represent The Fort Wayne Woman's Club at the Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in Washington, D.C.

Our General Federation President has given us a challenge in her theme: "Responsible, Responsive Citizenship for Survival." With the world in seeming chaos and the potential of the Universe still somewhat of an unknown quantity, the rising sun of each new day brings even a greater challenge. Can we meet it?

We need not say that there is nothing we can do; or that we have arrived on the scene too late to make a new contribution to problems that must be met. Club women of each decade can begin where the previous ones left off. The greater the former women were, the farther the newcomers may go.

Certainly the pioneer women of this organization prepared a solid foundation, and because of that, a well built structure is our heritage. Where we go from here depends upon our imagination, determination and fortitude. May we not be found wanting.

Sincerely,
Edith Skelly

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART.

Who's Who On Our Program

ANN VARESE

Ann Varese is a topflight dramatic star, who has had a varied and successful career in musical comedy.

Miss Varese comes from Texas. She attended Christian College in Columbia, Missouri, where she was a speech major under the personal direction of Virginia Duncan.

Whether she is giving a popular play, doing a dramatic book review or presenting her Musical Comedy Revue, so full of fascinating stories, songs and dances, she is always the superb artist in complete control of her audience.

JACK LONDON

Jack London is the world's most noted expert on crime technique. His tours have taken him half way around the world through Canada, the West Indies, Europe and the United States.

Through Mr. London's highly charged presentation, hundreds of people have learned to protect themselves and their families against thieves, pickpockets, confidence men and other denizens of the underworld.

Mr. London is one of the most fascinating speakers in the country today.

NORMAN NADEL

Norman Nadel is an experienced lecturer, who knows his subjects thoroughly, describes music and the theater vividly and speaks with refreshing humor.

Mr. Nadel attended Denison University where he completed two majors — psychology and music. He is now the Theater Editor, Drama and Music Critic on the Columbus Citizen of Columbus, Ohio. Outside of New York, Mr. Nadel is one of the most widely quoted and highly respected critics in the country.

One of his greatest contributions to the theater was his founding of the long distance "show trains." In 1956, Mr. Nadel inaugurated the "long distance show plane" taking Constellation-loads of Ohioans to Europe for two weeks of theater, ballet and opera.

THEODORE BUMILLER

Ted Bumiller is an architect and a graduate of the Applied Arts College, University of Cincinnati, Ohio. He has been traveling extensively in many lands since his college days.

"By Jeep Around the World" is an all color adventure film-story of Mr. Bumiller's year-long solo journey around the world.

ELEANORE WARNER AND RAYMOND THOMAS SHARP

Eleanore Warner, Chicago's brilliant and beautiful soprano, who was a tremendous success as an associate star with James Melton on a coast-to-coast tour, received the highest praise from President Eisenhower when they sang at a White House state dinner.

Raymond Thomas Sharp is one of the finest baritones coming into the concert field in recent years. A training that included special work at Julliard and experience in every type of singing makes him the magnificently mature artist he is.

The Chicago Duo is given brilliant support by Irene Albrecht, concert pianist.

ZENO KLINKER

Zeno Klinker is a top comedy writer, pilot and authority on aviation history. Mr. Klinker is now in his 22nd year as Edgar Bergen's writer — writing the jokes for Charlie McCarthy, Mortimer Snerd and his namesake, Effie Klinker.

At the present time Mr. Klinker is able to take time from his comedy writing to make a limited number of appearances with this remarkable film, which is exclusively his and has not been shown in movie theaters or on television. The film depicts 60 years of aerial progress — from the Wrights to the Rockets. It is especially timely as it relives all events leading up to our present day jets, rockets, missiles, satellites — and the space projects.

WILLIAM HINES

California-born William Hines, who joined The Washington Star in 1950 via the old Boston Transcript, the United Press Bureau in New York and the Chattanooga Times, has had broad experience covering news in politics, human relations and science. His discussions of these important subjects are trenchant, topical and thought-provoking.

Mr. Hines is now Science Editor of the Washington Star. He has been a frequent panel member on "Meet The Press" and is one of the original members of "Face the Nation" panels and moderator of "College News Conference."

DON BOLT

Don Bolt was born in Brazil, Indiana, where he attended high school. Upon his discharge from the U.S. Army after the first World War, he entered Washington University in St. Louis, then Indiana University. He then entered newspaper work and was on such metropolitan papers as the St. Louis Globe-

Democrat, Pittsburg Post, Chicago Herald Examiner and the Indianapolis News.

Many years ago he returned to his early love for travel and observation together with lecturing. He is a recognized expert on Latin-American affairs, since he has been there every year since 1940.

GODFREY SPERLING

Godfrey Sperling, Jr., as Chief of the Central News Bureau of The Christian Science Monitor, is responsible for news coverage in twenty-three states in Mid-America.

Mr. Sperling has a B.S. degree in Journalism from the University of Illinois and an L.L.B. in law from the University of Oklahoma. He is a member of the Illinois, Oklahoma and Massachusetts Bar Associations.

Following his service in the U.S. Army Air Corp from which he was separated as a major in 1946, Mr. Sperling joined the Monitor. Today he specializes in political writing and subjects related to world government and political science, as well as labor, education and legal subjects.

GEORGE B. ANDERSON

George B. Anderson is one writer for whom the lecture platform holds no fears. Back in his college days, he appeared in international debates against speakers from Oxford, Cambridge and the University of Sydney, Australia, and won the coveted Delta Sigma Rho award for excellence in public speaking.

Mr. Anderson is the author of "How to Get More Fun for Your Money" and has written many radio and television dramas. Currently he operates a radio-television production company.

MURIEL WOLFSON

Muriel Wolfson, a Chicagoan, received her formal training as an actress at Carleton College and was graduated from the Northwestern University School of Speech after which time she taught creative dramatics, acted on radio and performed her one-woman dramas. After touring the United States and Canada with her programs, Miss Wolfson retired from the stage to rear her family.

Her retirement was short-lived because Miss Wolfson had the ambition to someday present Helen Keller's story of achievement, which she does in a series of dramatic episodes.

IAN ROSS MACFARLANE

For many years one of the country's foremost authorities on world affairs, Ian Ross Macfarlane has recently turned his attentions toward Africa. There, he feels, in that little-known section that stretches from Dakar to the mouth of the Congo will be found many answers to the perplexing problems which confront our American Government and our fellow Americans.

Mr. Macfarlane's keen observations of Africa are based on many years as world traveller, war correspondent and News Commentator for the Mutual Broadcasting system. He has traversed the globe many times and has interviewed the political and military leaders everywhere.

JOE CALLAWAY

Joe Callaway is Mr. Broadway. He has been seen and heard in every medium — summer stock to TV, Hollywood to Times Square, Shakespeare to slapstick. He has had a dozen successful coast-to-coast tours in America and a year's trip to Europe where audiences applauded him in fourteen countries.

Mr. Callaway attended the universities of Oklahoma, Northwestern, U.C.L.A. and the Goodman Theater. He brings to his skill and versatility as an actor the perceptive scholarship which characterizes him as a lecturer and professor in leading universities.

JOHN TIFFANY ELLIOTT

John Tiffany Elliott was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and attended the University of Kansas. After leaving college he played a number of movie roles in Hollywood and also appeared on the legitimate stage in California and New York state.

For the past six years, Mr. Elliott has lectured on the theater, on writing technique and the commercial market for writers, at such institutions as New York University and Columbia. He discusses, with perception and humor, the various ramifications of book publishing and show business.

DR. ROWLAND M. MYERS

Dr. Rowland Myers, a native of Brooklyn, New York and a graduate of Dartmouth College, received his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Romance Languages and Literature from the Johns Hopkins University. He has also studied in France, Germany, Italy, Spain and Mexico.

Dr. Myers taught languages and literature at the Johns Hopkins University, Washington and Lee University, Union College, the University of Texas and many others. During World War II he commanded an Anti-aircraft Artillery Battery and served overseas in the Intelligence and Psychological Warfare sections of the Army.

NORMAN GARBO

"Anyone who can hold a paint brush can learn to paint" contends artist, Norman Garbo, in his highly entertaining lecture-demonstration. He is a shining example of his theory, since he was eighteen before showing the slightest interest in art — as a profession or otherwise. Three years later he was teaching art at the Brooklyn Academy of Fine Arts.

Mr. Garbo's works have hung in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Chicago Art Institute, the Philadelphia Museum and numerous other art galleries throughout the country.

As a portrait painter, he is one of the few artists who has painted both Eisenhower and Truman.

DR. DONALD KLECKNER

Dr. Kleckner is chairman of the Department of Speech, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio.

Having earned his Bachelor of Arts degree at Heidelberg College and both the Masters and Doctor of Philosophy degrees at the University of Michigan, Dr. Kleckner continued his training at the Shakespeare Institute, Stratford-on-Avon, England, where he was among sixty students selected from eleven nations to study Shakespearean drama.

MAGGIE DALY

Pert and pretty, with the flashing smile that bespeaks her Irish ancestry, Maggie Daly, originally of County Tyrone and transplanted to Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, is known along Chicago's Michigan Boulevard and New York's Fifth Avenue as "Miss Fashion."

Miss Daly is acclaimed for her light, amusing approach to fashion, which, for all its entertaining qualities, is basically sound and eminently practical. On the platform, the vivacious Miss Daly demonstrates that fashion can be intelligent, flexible — and FUN.

WEEKLEY AND ARGANBRIGHT

Dallas Weekley and Nancy Arganbright, brilliant young American pianists, are newcomers to the concert stage, winning the hearts of audiences everywhere. Married, they began giving recitals of piano four-hand music for the sheer joy of making music together. These recitals met with such overwhelming success that they decided to sacrifice individual careers to form one of the few professional piano duet teams in the world today. Their friendly, vivacious manner, appealing programs, and sensitive musicianship have endeared them to musician and laymen alike.

CHARLES W. DEUSER

Charles W. Deuser has been writing for the periodical field for over thirty years. He has been President and Director of Research for the Atlantic Oil and Chemical Works. He has also been Director of Research for the Cleantex Products Corporation. He has been a long time consultant in the field of Human Relations, with special interest in the psychological development of Man in this Century.

Mrs. Mildred Ahlgren, National Past President, General Federation of Woman's Clubs, writes that Mr. Deuser is a most engaging speaker with a message that carries great interest.

PATRICIA CLAFFORD

FLORINE M. SAYLORS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY

In this, our 35th year, we paid tribute to our Charter members, whose struggles and hard work laid the foundation for the Fort Wayne Woman's Club as you know it and enjoy it today. Had that foundation not been so firm, these past two years might have shaken it a bit, but following in the footsteps of our founders, every one who was asked to do a job, did it. To name them all would be an impossible task, rather we will record their accomplishments.

Under the leadership of a very dedicated woman — your President, Mrs. Paul Yergens — your Board of Directors held four called and eight regular meetings to transact the business of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club.

With Mrs. Lenoard Saylor as Chairman, the Trustees again authorized all needed repairs and improvements to the Club House. The remaining two-thirds of the delinquent excise tax assessment, $12,772.63, was paid in full on July 3, 1959. This necessitated cashing United States Savings Bonds and the money remaining after the taxes were paid, was reinvested in bonds and treasury notes. The Trustees purchased treasury notes as an investment for the Memorial Endowment Fund. Mrs. A. J. Baxter was elected Chairman of Trustees, and Mrs. Arnold Sherer, Secretary, for the coming year.

There have been 22 General Club programs, including the Opening Reception, Federation Breakfast, Christmas Luncheon, Anniversary Luncheon, and May Breakfast. A wide variety of subjects was covered in these programs and approximately 6,849 members and 395 guests attended. In addition, the Membership Coffee held on February 5th to welcome new members into the Club was attended by 102. The Christmas Ball was a success both in good fellowship and financially.

Classes were held in the Art of Conversation and Thoughtful Newspaper Reading and attendance was excellent. Again we have to thank the Fine Arts Department for the many fine exhibits hung in the auditorium.

Locally, we have been represented on the United Chest Council and the Legislative Committee has attended sessions with the Traffic Safety Commission, Urban Renewal, and Juvenile Court. World-wide, we have been made aware of events by the up-to-the minute reports of the International Relations Chairman.

Your Federation Chairman has worked diligently so that all reports were sent in to make your Club eligible for awards. Our entry for Teacher of the Year won the 12th District award and a family has been entered in the Ideal American Family Contest. The use of the Club House was again donated for the Allen Court and 12th District Conventions. Your President and several members attended the Indiana Federation Convention in Indianapolis the past two days, but the convention is still in session and few awards have been given at this time. We will be advised later of any awards won. The incoming President, Mrs. D. A. Skelly, will attend the General Federation Convention in Washington, D.C. in June.

The Departments held their traditional meetings and parties and put forth special efforts this year to make the Family Affair and the bake sales a huge success. Your Project Chairman reports these two projects cleared $1,528.83. In addition, a Theatre Holiday to New York and the Easter Bridge helped to make a total of $2,494.49 from all projects.

Our membership now stands at 901 and we have all enjoyed seeing the pictures and reading the articles featuring these members in the many, many pages of publicity secured through the effort of the Publicity Chairman.

This report will end this year with the philanthropic work of the Departments and the General Club. It is an impressive list, and without "the ever-lasting team-work of every bloomin' soul," there would be no such list. It is as follows:

Allen County League for the Blind — a belted sander, records of the Readers Digest with labels in braille, one pair calipers; Allen County Childrens Home — utility table and tubular chair; Fine Arts Foundation Drive; Visiting Nurse Association; Musical Pennies; Penny Art Fund; Indian Scholarship; Practical Nursing School of Fort Wayne; Care to India; Meals for Millions; Allen County Scholarship Fund — teacher for the retarded; Red Cross; Allen County Mental Health Association; United Fund; Multiple Sclerosis; Muskatatuck State School; Needlework Guild; Indiana Lincoln Foundation. In addition used clothing and bedding was sent to an Arizona Indian Reservation by the House and Garden Department; articles made by the Blind were sold in the amount of $184.27; by the American Home Department; and a $250.00 Scholarship Loan Fund at the Fort Wayne Art School is supported by the Fine Arts Department.

As I said, all this could not have been accomplished without teamwork. Project and House earnings have gone over the top and the budget has been met. At a Called Board Meeting on April 21st, your Board of Directors voted to donate a room to the St. Joseph Hospital in the name of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club. We hope that you, the members, feel the same pride in this accomplishment, as we, your Board of Directors do. Thomas Edison once gave this advice: "There is a way to do it better — find it." But Max McGraw, President of the McGraw-Edison Company said: "There is a way to do it — better find it" — and we did!

Recording Secretary
